

Post-doc within the Department of Business Administration at Lund University

Postdoctoral position within the projects “Global search for science: How do multinational companies establish collaborations with distant universities?” and “Failure and progress in Science: How do early career experience and attitudes shape achievements of researchers?”

Project descriptions: The Department of Business Administration announces a vacancy for a 24 months combined post-doc position. The first project is a collaboration between Lund university (Dr. Claudio Fassio and Dr. Pauline Mattsson) and University of Torino (Prof. Aldo Geuna) the second project is coordinated by LU (Dr. Pauline Mattsson and Dr. Sotaro Shibayama). The successful candidate will participate in the collection of large scale data collection and analyses using econometric models. The post-doc is expected to actively contribute to the projects objectives by writing and publishing research articles based on the empirical results obtained.

We are looking for a candidate who meets the following criteria:

- Having completed a PhD in a subject relevant to the research projects.
- Being interested in economics of innovation, sociology of science, science and technology policy and related areas.
- Experience in setting up, using databases and performing econometric analyses.
- Fluent in English.

Employment Type: Full-time

Duration: 24 months

Remuneration: about 2,700 euro net a month (total gross 3,700 EUR). To rent a furnished apartment about 60m² in the centre of the city costs about 1,000 EUR.

Starting Date: approximately Nov/Dec 2021

Information on Application:

Interested applicants should send to Prof. Aldo Geuna (aldo.geuna@unito.it), Dr. Claudio Fassio (claudio.fassio@fek.lu.se) or Dr. Pauline Mattsson (pauline.mattsson@fek.lu.se):

1. Copy of PhD thesis
2. Curriculum Vitae.
3. Letter of introduction (max. 2 pages) containing a presentation of the applicant, important qualifications and a brief description of why the applicant is interested in the projects.

The formal application will be advertised by the end of September 2020, further information will be supplied to interested candidates.